Nestled in a peaceful, rural, wooded hideaway, surrounded by stunning West Cork countryside and only about half a mile from the quaint village of Castletownshend with beaches nearby. Well situated only a 5 minute drive from Skibbereen, which is the 'hub' of West Cork and is an ideal base from which to discover the delight that the area has to offer. Skibbereen remains a colourful and friendly town boasting some of the best artisan food producers living locally and within easy access at the local farmers market every Saturday.

Whale and dolphin watching, angling, sailing, horse riding and golf are just a taste of what West Cork has to offer.

Our cottages are welcoming and cosy, offering all the character of a traditional old cottage with all the modern convenience you expect from a luxury escape, at affordable prices. We aim to provide not just self catering accommodation, but a country living experience that feels like home, where you can bring your dog and walk out your door into the countryside undisturbed by traffic and let time stand still. On your return stop by the vegetable plot and pick some veggies, collect some eggs and retreat to snuggle up around the fire or head out for a pint down the local Mary Ann's.

Whatever you want to get out of your holiday break, be it peace and quiet, romance or full on adventure, we hope to accommodate you!

In addition cottage 3 is now available for holiday lets making it an ideal location for large groups, family get togethers, wedding parties etc.

Details of cottage 3 will be published shortly.
